

The journey begins a mile high.

When it comes to your career, choose Swingle.™

Inside each Swingle employee is a passion for being outside.

Colorado offers superb rock climbing on ancient canyon walls and cliffs.

Do you possess a passion for working in the great outdoors?

You've come to the right place - and the right company. Swingle operates in various locations in Colorado with headquarters located in the beautiful mile high city of Denver.

Colorado is a recreational wonderland, a treasure trove of mountains, rivers, deserts and plains. The skiing and snowboarding rank among the world's best. And for hiking, biking, camping, fishing, hunting, golf, rafting and all things outdoors, you simply can't top the great "Centennial State."

Our climate is mild with over 300 days of annual sunshine. Events are plentiful year-round. The state offers a dazzling array of attractions and unique venues like concerts in the beautiful Red Rocks Amphitheater, plus exciting outdoor festivals and fairs. College and professional sports thrive. You will discover the rich history of the west, its great culture, arts and diversity. You can have it all when it comes to working and playing in colorful Colorado.

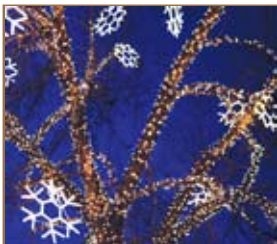

The Swingle seed was planted decades ago in the Colorado soil.

Swingle's Corporate Headquarters - Denver, Colorado

Trees towering in Denver's neighborhoods planted by John Swingle decades ago.

Swingle's decor lighting gives trees that festive holiday season sparkle.

Swingle is one of the most respected landscape care service companies in America.

Our roots run deep. In 1947, John Swingle set-up his tree surgery business in Denver. Today, when you take a stroll around the city's older and more established neighborhoods, towering above you are trees planted by John Swingle decades ago. Our company cares for many of those same trees today.

Strong roots support healthy growth - and Swingle has indeed grown to become a giant in its field. In terms of staff, reputation, resources, safety practices and innovation, very few landscape care companies can keep pace. We continue to steadily expand and grow our territory to meet the demand for our renowned customer service and expertise in landscape care.

Our focus is constant, but the things we do vary in interesting ways. The variety of services we offer present another strong benefit for beginning or advancing your career with Swingle.

Delivering lawn, tree and landscape care. The key word is "care."

Renowned customer care service starts with the very first phone call.

The name of our company, Swingle Lawn, Tree & Landscape Care, ends with the word "care." When it comes to doing business, it begins just the same.

We care about - and care for - the Colorado landscape, its residential communities, commercial properties, municipal properties and golf courses. We're experts in the care of specific plants that are found in the urban Rocky Mountain region and we work diligently to maintain their health and beauty.

Advanced training and safety programs are a part of Swingle University.

Swingle truly cares about our employees, professionals who care about the green industry while making a positive change in the environment. If you bring us a passion for arboriculture, horticulture or turfgrass and a team spirit with a desire to succeed, we'll offer you the following benefits:

- * Top Industry Wages
- * Health & Wellness Plans
- * Generous 401K Plans
- * Safety Awards / Incentives
- * Advanced Training Programs Through "Swingle U"
- * Continuing Education Opportunities

We strive to help you blossom personally and professionally.

Handheld devices allow more efficient routing for Swingle's technicians.

Dig into your job and you'll likely blossom personally and professionally. You're going to learn a lot. You're going to stay busy year-round with new challenges. You're going to see the results of your efforts in the form of beautiful green things (and by that we don't just mean money).

Most importantly, Swingle offers longevity to your career path. Earn your place at Swingle and you may graduate to a management level position you'll enjoy for many years.
